Family Culture Interview Protocol

1. What does family mean to you?
   A. What is your definition of family?
   B. What examples would you give of that family (that describe family)?
   C. How do you experience family?
   D. How do you think or feel about family?

2. What are some of the family stories (myths, rituals) that your family tells (or engages)?
   A. How do you perform (enact/engage) family?

3. What are your family values?
   A. How did your family's values come about?
   B. How did you learn your family values.
   C. How are your family values maintained and developed?

4. How do you feel (think) about family values in your larger community?
   A. How do you feel (think) about family values in your neighborhood?
   B. How do you feel (think) about family values in your community?
   C. How do you feel (think) about family values in southern Louisiana?
   D. How do you feel (think) about family values in the South?